New York City needs:

1. High-performance buildings
2. Upgraded and better maintained energy distribution
3. Green roofs
4. Green-collar jobs
5. Waste reduction and recycling
6. Workforce transition opportunities for good jobs in a sustainable economy
7. Policy to encourage markets for local "green" manufacturing and services
8. Equity in energy planning and economic development so that low-income communities of color do not bear the greater burden
9. Policy to encourage renewable energy
10. Investment in transit alternatives
